Welcome

By Sami Corbitt, Editor

Hello readers,

Welcome to The Rag, a small departure from our usual newsletter. In it you will find a lot of dirt. I hope you enjoy.

Regrettably, this will be my last issue as editor of the newsletter. It's been fun this last year reading and viewing all the talent that you have to offer. I hope you will continue to submit your work for publication to the Undercurrents. Thanks to all who have contributed over the last year. Ω

Rumors and Quotes

OOO Quotes

"Unfortunately, there isn't a 'Bitch: the CockWench'"

- Jarrod (Garet's mate), after the TN-008 meeting

"People like to tickle me and do nasty things to my face."

- Mara, OOC

"This is our DST."

- Carrie taking a picture of Mrrowr licking himself, to show her friends in Chicago

The material printed here was gathered through keeping an ear open during the games, and through direct member input. Some of the rumors are true and some are false. They're things that your character might have heard IC, react accordingly!

Alvaro Sandego, Elder Prince of Atlanta, really wishes for Guillame to move there so they might shop together and talk about people.

The Masks are growing in number, are they trying to take over the city?

The Tremere control the city and the Prince is their puppet.

There is a new Mask in town, Ester ... She always scratches herself. Was she raised by wild animals?

Rumor has it that the members of the Sabbat were behind the explosion and hundreds of mortal deaths at the Outer Limits.

Prince Danilov is planning to have his cronies with political and bureaucratic influence to decrease funding of museums and the Fine Arts programs significantly to funnel to the police so he can use them in his wars against the Sabbat.

The disappearance of Guillame is actually a sign of impending doom for the city and world at large. The Book of Nod reads "When a fabulous one disappears, then shall Caine return." No, really, that's what it says in Enochian.
